NEW GLENDALÉ 11 TV SHOW FEATURES VICE MAYOR DISCUSSING SPECIAL CARE HOSPICE FACILITY BEING BUILT IN GLENDALÉ

Glendale, Ariz. — Vice-Mayor Steve Frate's new edition of Glendale Today highlights Hospice of the Valley and the new Thunderbird Palliative Care Unit at 59th Ave. and Eugie, in the Thunderbird Medical Center. Hospice of the Valley specializes in providing care for people with serious illnesses who are nearing the end of life while also offering services and resources for both the patient and the family.

During the 30-minute TV show, Frate interviews caregivers and executives from Hospice of the Valley as well as Glendale's planning director who is assisting in getting the building up and running. Topics discussed include the specialized kinds of care for dementia patients and what makes Hospice of the Valley unique.

The show debuts Friday, September 7 at 8 p.m. and can also be seen daily on Glendale 11, the city's television station. In addition, viewers can watch online via the city's video library at www.glendaleaz.com/video. For more information about Glendale 11 or the new TV show, visit www.glendaleaz.com/glendale11.
